Wedding Tips for the Nontraditional Bride

Planning a Wedding in NYC Spring 2010

Suit Up

Your gown is a done deal (go to Lovely, the new bridal atelier), but your fiancé looks like his dad when he wears a tux. Encourage your beloved to ditch the bow-tie ensemble in favor of an Alton Lane bespoke suit. He can choose from numerous fabric, button, and style options; and the whole thing is less than $500. Finish the look with a handmade tie from C. Chauchat. Layers of fabric create a slightly hypnotizing iridescent pattern, and the company's chiffon scarves make elegant pocket squares.
